

Habitat duplex set for Avenue V site

Various dignitaries broke ground on a two-family duplex on Avenue V South Thursday.

The building is a partnership between Habitat for Humanity, the provincial government, local high schools and corporations.

Construction will begin soon, and the two families will contribute sweat equity to the project.

Once completed, there will be 42 Saskatoon families owning homes built with the help of Habitat.